PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 3rd November 1961

No. 47-Pres./61.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Rajasthan Police:—

Name of the officer and rank:

Shri Lakh Singh, Head Constable No. 166, Barmer District, Rajasthan (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the 12th April, 1961, on receipt of information about the presence of dacoits in the area of Police Station Sheo, Head Constable Lakh Singh was detailed to accompany Circle Inspector Inder Singh and a party of Police to pursue the dacoits. The Police party tracked the dacoits to well fortified morchas on a sand dune near Sargila-ka-par (Kotra) and after splitting up into three parties encircled the dacoits who promptly opened fire on the Police.

Head Constable Lakh Singh, disregarding the risk he ran, went ahead with his L.M.G. and took up a position on the eastern side of the sand dune from which he opened fire on the dacoits. Under cover of this fire the main body of police were able to advance and captured three of the morchas. The dacoits then moved to a morchha to the south of the sand dune and from this considerably strengthened and advantageous position opened withering fire on the police whose position became critical. Head Constable Lakh Singh was then detailed to counteract this fire and accordingly concentrated his fire on the morchha. But while his fire accurately sprayed the morchha it could not do any real damage since the dacoits were effectively concealed in their new position. Realising this, Head Constable Lakh Singh took the daring step of advancing further in order to capture the morchha but unfortunately as he advanced was shot dead by the dacoits.

During this gallant encounter which lasted for eight hours, Shri Lakh Singh showed great initiative, exceptional courage and devotion to duty in the performance of which he laid down his life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
